

Commando™

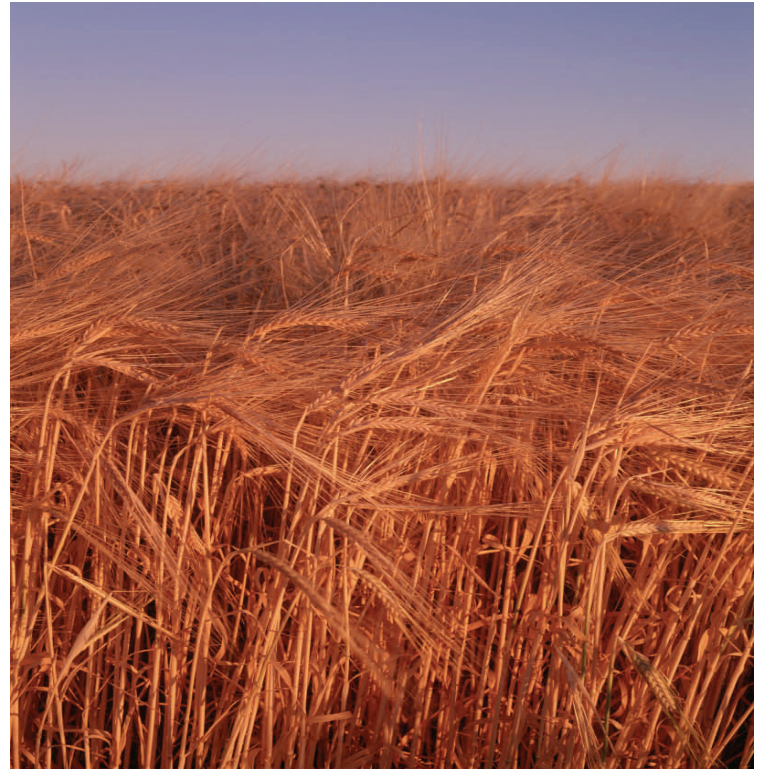

Clopyralid and 2,4-D Amine Herbicide

Commando™ offers excellent selective post emergence control of the toughest broad-leaf weeds in wheat and barley

Labeled Use Sites

- Wheat
- Barley
- Permanent pastures
- Rangeland
- Grasses grown for seed
- CRP
- Fallow
- Other non crop areas

Key Benefits

- On Wheat and Barley 2-2.67 pints is recommended for early application
- Flexible rates and timing allow applications up to boot stage
- Commando™ can be applied using air or ground equipment
- Commando™ is rainfast in 6 hours
- Does not harm desirable grasses when applied as directed

Active Ingredients:

Clopyralid	5.1%
2,4-D Amine	39.0%
Other Inert Ingredients	55.9%
Total	100 %

Contains .38 pounds of clopyralid per gallon

Contains 2.0 pounds of 2,4-d amine per gallon

Always read and follow label directions

Broadleaf Weeds Controlled by Commando™
Alfalfa (from seed only)	horseweed	radish, wild artichoke, Jerusalem	jimsonweed	ragweed, common buckwheat, wild	knapweed, diffuse	ragweed giant burdock, common	knapweed, spotted	salsify, meadow chamomile, false	ladysthumb	shepardspurse chamomile, mayweed	lambquarters, common	sicklepod clover, black medic	lettuce, prickly	smartweed, Pennsylvania clover, hop	locoweed, lambert	sorrel, red clover, red	locoweed, white	sowthistle, annual clover, sweet	marshelder	starthistle, yellow clover, white	mustard, tumble	sunflower, common cocklebur, common	mustard, wild	teasel, common coffeeweed	nightshade, black	thistle, bull cornflower	nightshade, cutleaf	thistle, Canada
dandelion	nightshade, eastern black	thistle, musk dock, curley	nightshade, hairy	thistle, Russian (1-3 leaf)
groundsel, common	pennycress, field	velvetleaf hawksbeard, narrowleaf	pigweed, redroot	vetch
hawkweed, orange	pineappleweed	volunteer peas, lentils, beans
hawkweed, yellow	plantain	wormwood

Broadleaf Weeds Suppressed by Commando™ buffalobur	knapweed, Russian	sowthistle, perennial
flixweed	kochia (2-4 leaf)	tansymustard, pinnate

Commando™ is not registered for use in every state or every county within the state. Please check with Albaugh Inc. or your local State Agency for product registration status. EPA Reg. No. 42750 – 94

